VOICE
VAMP
In the days of Six - ty-one when Dix - ie took her stand, To the col - ors Whee-ler, Lee and Jack-son, all fought for "The dear lost cause," For the sun - ny came her men, the fin - est in the land. Now they are as - sem-bled, this time dress'd in kha - ki South-land, its cus-toms and its laws. Now their sons are Sam-mies and fight for De - moc - ra - brown, There's twen-ty-sev - en thou-sand, way down in Ma-con town. They're all from Dix-ie, Hur-rah for cy, They're at Camp Wheeler training to go a-cross the sea. They're all from Dix-ie, Hur-rah for Dix - ie! It takes a lot to make them fight, but, when they fight, they fight.
Dix - ie! When Dix - ie men commence to fight great men will come to light.

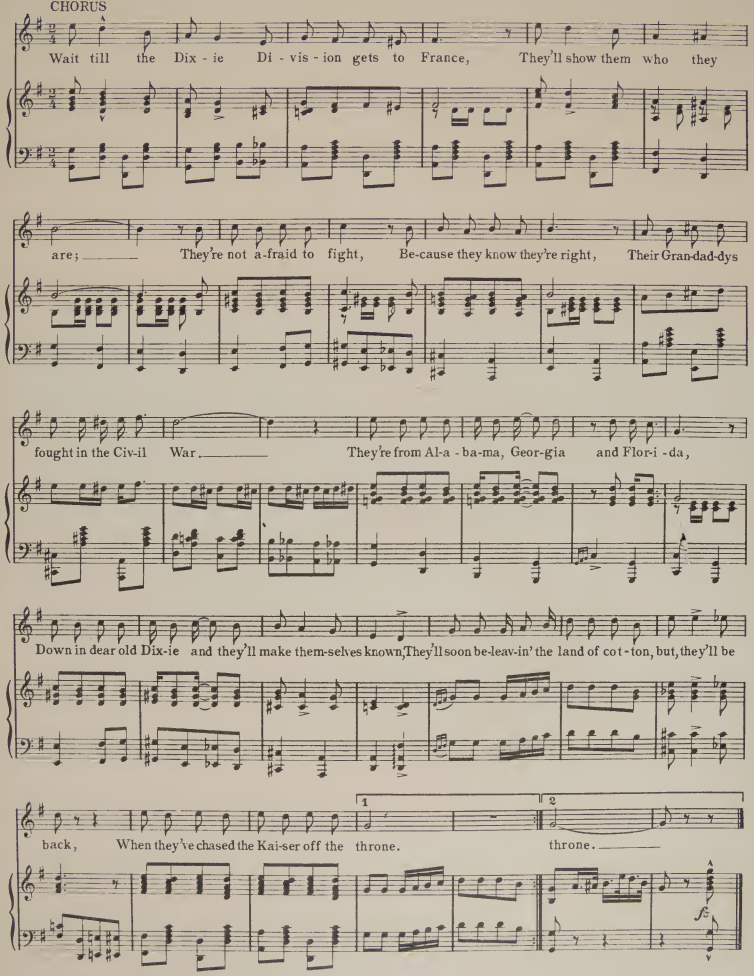
CHORUS



Wait till the Dix - ie Di - vis - ion gets to France, They'll show them who they are; They're not a-fraid to fight, Be-cause they know they're right, Their Gran-dad-dys fought in the Civ-il War. They're from Al-a - ba-ma, Geor-gia and Flor-i - da, Down in dear old Dix-ie and they'll make them-selves known, They'll soon be-leav-in' the land of cot - ton, but, they'll be back, When they've chased the Kai-ser off the throne. throne.
